

COMMUNICATING WITH CONFIANZA — A HEALTH LITERACY ECHO

TOGETHER, WE CAN IMPROVE COMMUNICATION AND HEALTH LITERACY SKILLS

Join us for a free online learning series designed to empower health professionals with health literacy education, resources and knowledge-sharing tools. The series is presented by Health Conianza, an award-winning health literacy nonprofit funded by Bexar County and housed at The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio.

Who is this for? Health professionals, including physicians, nurses, community health workers, social workers and pharmacists.

Join our expert team the first and third Friday of each month

TOPICS:

- Acknowledging perspectives
- Shame/stigma; Creating a shame-free environment
- Plain language
- Shared decision-making
- Teach Back

WHAT:

Free, six-part series

DATE/TIME:

Sept. 5th - Nov. 21, 1st and 3rd Fridays of the month, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

REGISTER:

bit.ly/CommunicatingwithConianza

CE credits are available

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca
san antonio

TEXAS
The University of Texas at Austin

